(Consolidated with Case No. C 07-2664 JSW)

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER REGARDING PRIVILEGE LOG PRODUCTION

STIPULATION

WHEREAS, Alpha & Omega Semiconductor, Inc., Alpha & Omega Semiconductor, Ltd. (collectively, "AOS") and Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. ("Fairchild") are parties to the above captioned matters;

WHEREAS, discovery matters in the above captioned matters have been referred to Magistrate Judge Elizabeth D. Laporte;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Order Re Discovery Procedures (Docket No. 40) entered by Judge Laporte on September 28, 2007, (the "Order") the parties are required to produce privilege logs "no later than 14 days after the discovery responses are due";

WHEREAS, the parties have agreed to produce documents diligently and in good faith on a periodic, rolling basis;

WHEREAS, due to the rolling nature of the production, the parties agree that a reasonable interpretation of the Order would require each party to produce a privilege log within 14 days of the production of any corresponding batch of discovery from which any document(s) have been withheld, and would further require each party to fully supplement their privilege log on a periodic and rolling basis no later than 14 days after the production of each additional batch of discovery from which any document(s) have been withheld, with each party to produce a final privilege log not later than 14 days after the completion of that party's production;

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED by and between the parties, through their undersigned counsel of record, that each party be required to produce a privilege log within 14 days of the production of any corresponding batch of discovery from which any document(s) have been withheld, and that each party be further required to fully supplement their privilege log on a periodic and rolling basis no later than 14 days after the production of each additional batch of discovery from which any document(s) have been withheld, with each party to produce a final privilege log not later than 14 days after the completion of that party's production.
